

Checklist of Adverse Reactions in Patients with Renal Cell Carcinoma

Note: Not all possible reactions are included. These represent the most common reactions with first-line therapy reported in US administrative claims data from 2006-2015.

Patient Name:

Date:

- Fatigue/asthenia
- Hypertension
- Diarrhea
- Hand-foot syndrome
- Dyspnea
- Nausea/vomiting
- Back pain
- Pain in extremity/limb discomfort
- Abdominal pain
- Anemia
- Hypotension
- Proteinuria
- Thrombocytopenia
- Hepatitis
- Thyroid disorders
- Renal insufficiency
- Pneumonitis
- Colitis
- Guillain-Barré syndrome
- Meningoencephalitis
- Rash